

Dr. J. Blair Blackburn (far right) along with (l-r) brother Bret Blackburn, father Jerry Blackburn, mother Nell Blackburn, daughter Betsy, wife Michelle, son Parker, and son Taylor.

DBU DEDICATES APARTMENT BUILDING IN HONOR OF DR. J. BLAIR BLACKBURN

Dallas Baptist University recently dedicated its newest apartment building in honor of DBU executive vice president Dr. J. Blair Blackburn. Dr. Blackburn has served for ten years at DBU, holding a variety of leadership positions, including assistant vice president for development, assistant vice president for enrollment and administrative affairs, dean of the College of Adult Education, vice president for enrollment and administrative affairs, and senior vice president. Throughout each role, he has served with excellence and a servant's heart.

Dr. Blackburn is the son of Jerry and Nell Blackburn of Tyler, Texas. He received his associate degree from Tyler Junior College, his bachelor's from the University of Texas at Tyler, an M.S. in higher education administration from Texas A&M, Commerce, and his Ed.D. in higher education leadership/administration from Baylor University. Dr. Blackburn and his wife, Michelle, have three children, Taylor, Betsy, and Parker.

