

SWAT WEEK 2010

Dallas Baptist University welcomed 509 incoming first-year and transfer students as a part of the annual orientation, Student Welcome And Transition Week. SWAT Week provides new students a chance to meet fellow Patriots, as well as a time to be able to visit with their professors, understand more about college life, and engage in special service projects in the community.

